(Translation)

Deep below the land there is another land. In that land live many strange creatures. The most interesting of these creatures look something like our wingless ones.
These daemons, however, are pale and soft. Some say that these daemons from the underworld can speak. And, to be sure, they make sounds that are similar to our language. But as everyone knows, no creature without wings is truly intelligent. Fables of talking daemons must be discredited.
